

Current Awareness Service

What is it? KnowledgeShare is our targeted current awareness service. The alerts include resources like guidelines, systematic reviews and selected high-level journals - you will not be inundated with primary research articles.

You must be a library member to receive current awareness.

Privacy Notice and Membership Declaration

Using your personal information

We are committed to safeguarding your information. The information you supply will be used to contact you about services or resources you have requested from the Library and Knowledge Service (LKS).

Sharing your personal information

We will share your information with the organisations that supply and manage our library management systems. We may share your information with another LKS team if you move organisations (you will receive an email notification if this happens).

Accessing your personal information

You may log in to our library management systems at www.elms.nhs.uk/ (using your Library UserID and PIN) or at www.knowledgeshare.nhs.uk (using your NHS OpenAthens account) to see the data we hold about you. You can request changes by emailing lib.desk@pah.nhs.uk

Deleting your personal information

We will delete the data we hold on you after a maximum 5-year period of inactivity (in case you return to use NHS library and knowledge services again within this time).

Further information

For further information on how your information is used, how we maintain its security, and your rights to access it, read the full KnowledgeShare privacy policy online at https://www.knowledgeshare.nhs.uk/index.php?PageID=help_privacy or the LKS privacy policy at <http://www.btuheks.nhs.uk/Legal/Privacy.html>

Your declaration

I apply for membership of the Library and Knowledge Service and agree to abide by the LKS terms and conditions. I agree to my data being held as described above.
